Alexandria, VA - 501Works, a leading provider of technology services and consulting to associations and non-profit businesses, announced today the acquisition of ReviewMyAMS, a prominent platform specializing in Association Management System (AMS) reviews. The move aims to enhance 501Works' resources within the AMS marketplace.

"We are thrilled to announce the acquisition of ReviewMyAMS," said Kim Grever, President of 501Works. "This strategic move aligns with our mission to continually expand and enhance our ability to raise the IT-IQ of association executives, so they have reliable information and resources at their disposal when making critical technology decisions."

ReviewMyAMS has built a strong reputation within the association community by providing an independent platform for association professionals to share their experiences and insights on AMS platforms. "Our combined strengths will empower associations to make informed decisions, navigate the complexities of AMS selection, and ultimately find the solution that perfectly aligns with their unique requirements." adds Teri Carden, Founder of ReviewMyAMS.

"Our goal is to re-energize the ReviewMyAMS experience and extend the existing platform with new tools and resources that will help associations through the challenging task of selecting, implementing and adopting one of their most critical business systems," said James Marquis, 501Works Chief Information Officer. 501Works will continue to operate ReviewMyAMS as a separate entity while leveraging its resources and adding new capabilities to expand its reach.

501Works and ReviewMyAMS are excited about the opportunities this acquisition presents and look forward to working in concert with the many supporters of RMA in order to drive change within the association industry. With a shared commitment to delivering exceptional services and supporting associations in a rapidly evolving landscape, this partnership strengthens 501Works' position as a trusted industry leader.
